

FULTON COUNTY MASTER GARDENER EXTENSION VOLUNTEERS

The purpose of the Georgia MGEV program is to assist UGA Extension in providing unbiased horticultural information through volunteer community service and consumer horticulture programming. The mission of the MGEV program and that of Extension is to connect the community with research-based, unbiased information.

150 active volunteers

> 8,000 hours service
contributed annually

> 60 active community projects

APPLYING

Applications are available online, at Fulton County Extension Offices, and at information sessions. Fill out the application completely and return by May 29th, 2020

Email:

mmattee@uga.edu

Main Mailing Address:

Fulton County Cooperative Extension
1757 Washington Road
East Point, GA 30344

INTERVIEWING

After we receive your application, we may contact you for an interview with current program members in June or July. This is another chance for you to become familiar with our program and see where your talents and passion can fit in!

REQUIRED CLASSES

- $200 registration fee (covers textbooks and supplies)
- Wednesdays from 10am to 3pm
- September 9th through November 18th 2020
- Two class locations: College Park and Sandy Springs
- Midterm and Final Exam
- Field trips

CERTIFICATION

- Complete all 42 hours coursework
- Pass midterm and final
- Contribute 50 hours service on approved Cooperative Extension projects within first year
- Maintain at least 25 service hours every year after

FOR MORE INFO:

South Fulton Office
1757 Washington Road
East Point, GA 30344
404-762-4077

North Fulton Office
7741 Roswell Road NE
Rm 248
Atlanta, GA 30350
404-613-7670

