PROFESSIONAL IMPROVEMENT AND AWARDS PROGRAMS
COMMITTEE DIRECTORY

ANNUAL MEETING &
PROFESSIONAL IMPROVEMENT CONFERENCE

Fort Wayne, Indiana
September 8-12, 2019

President's Corner

Richard Fechter
NACAA President

Welcome to the professional improvement and awards programs and committee directory issue of The County Agent magazine. This edition is specifically set aside for professional development, presentation, and awards opportunities. In the following pages, you will find many opportunities for you to be recognized for the great work that you are doing in Extension in your home state. You will also find opportunities to make presentations and posters at the 2019 AM/PIC.

Members comment every year on the AM/PIC evaluation that more professional development and more presentations on specific subjects are wanted. At the 2019 Annual Meeting and Professional Improvement Conference in Fort Wayne, we hope to continue to the schedule change from last year of having approximately 24 additional presentation sessions on Wednesday morning. In order to do this, members must submit abstracts to fill these time periods. So, I offer the challenge to NACAA members to apply for and submit abstracts in the various programs. We can only offer what members submit abstracts for. With this continued change of adding more professional development and presentations, we as a board hope to spread out similar program area types of presentations over a few days so one can attend most of them if they wish.

NACAA has made some changes in the awards programs and has tried to cleanup some areas of policy and procedures to make items clearer to everyone so that you will have a better experience as you participate in our various recognition and presentation opportunities. The board is also looking at making some changes in the AM/PIC schedule in regards to the Search for Excellence presentations and other items. Stay tuned for more information as we get closer to the AM/PIC. We are also taking steps to make the evaluation process of the presentations simpler and easier for everyone involved.

As you complete awards applications, please remember that all DSA, AA, National Award winners, and National Award finalists must register for the AM/PIC and attend the designated ceremony to receive their award. The respective National Committee Council Chair, in concert with the National Committee Chairs/Vice-Chairs and the NACAA Vice President, will make a recommendation to the NACAA President who will rule on request for non-attendance. Excuses may be granted for extreme personal or family illness, circumstance which would seriously jeopardize their job, or similar extreme situations.

Also, in this issue of The County Agent magazine is a listing of the leadership of the NACAA Committees. Take the time to think about potential leadership positions on a national level. I know many of you hold leadership positions in your respective states. If you are interested in finding out what committee positions are available this year, please look in this issue and apply online. A note about the open committee chair and vice chair positions. NACAA has made a change to our committee structure. The change involves the 4-H & Youth Committee. These changes will be effective following the 2019 AM/PIC. The 4-H & Youth Committee under the Program Recognition Council will be dissolved. The Excellence in 4-H & Youth Programming Award will be moved to the Search for Excellence committee under the Program Recognition Council and the name of the award will be changed to Search for Excellence in Youth Programming. Finally, a committee under the Professional Improvement Council named 4-H & Youth Programs was created to oversee accepting and scheduling 4-H & Youth presentations. However, to allow this change to take place, Committee Chair and Vice Chair positions for these committees must be filled for 2019. If you are interested in these positions, look at the last page of the magazine and apply accordingly.

The Extension Leadership Conference sponsored by JCEP is quickly approaching February 6-7 in San Antonio, Texas. The conference is open to all members to attend. There will be an outstanding program that includes: Grace Gorrell our keynote speaker, five breakout sessions featuring 30 presentations from your peers, a poster session featuring 25 posters being presented by Extension professionals from across the country and professional organization meeting opportunities. You will also be able to network with Extension professionals from across the country.

Take some time and get those abstracts and entries submitted. The 2019 AM/PIC is September 8 - 12. The deadline for awards submission is March 15, 2019. Even though the AM/PIC is later this year, the deadline for awards and presentation submission is the same as every year. All program entries must be in possession of respective committee state chair by March 15, 2019, except where noted. Applying earlier is encouraged. Look forward to seeing you in Fort Wayne, Indiana September 8 - 12!

Life Member Corner

Step up to the plate.

Paul Craig, Life Member from Pennsylvania serves on the NACAA Life Member Committee as NE Region representative.

The Life Member Committee encourages articles that highlight what Extension meant to members during their careers and in retirement.

I believe that throughout our lives we are often given what I like to refer to as “life lessons”. Sometimes we remember them, other times they simply pass right by, in front of our eyes. Many years ago I served on a planning committee for a large, celebratory-type annual meeting. The event chair was not well organized but was good at procrastination. The entire planning committee knew from past experiences that this was a train wreck waiting to happen and no one wanted to step in front of the locomotive. As a result the event was conducted shoddily, unorganized, short of food and drink, a speaker that didn’t show. You get the idea.

Afterwards, while folding tables and chairs, a coworker commented how all of the volunteers, politicians, youth, staff attendees, etc. saw the same disaster that we just did. She noted however, that the attendees would not blame the event chair but rather the unorganized event reflected on all of the committee, not just the poor leadership of the chair. Although that is what we, the committee, had privately hoped, I guess.

To me this was one of those “life lessons” mentioned earlier. To me it was a “step up to the plate” message. In the previous situation I did not step up. Heck I barely got off the bench, to use a baseball term. Shame on me and an experience I hope has helped to direct my life and career.

Paul Craig

Now I told that story to set up the real purpose of this article. Recently I ran into a longtime friend who retired from Extension close to the same time as I did. We compared what he and several of our other coworkers were doing after retirement. Among the quick list we could come up with the following were noted: marathon runner, university instructor, seed sales, crop consultant, beef producer, state fish commission director, potato consultant, politician (local and state), fair board leadership, lots of musicians, volunteers, drivers, landscapers, travelers, hunters, fishers, hikers, bikers and one I am looking forward to grand parenting! Oh my!

We both commented that it seems like a career in Extension helped to lay the groundwork for a lifetime of dedication to family and country. Another life lesson occurred to me during a professional development presentation at an AM/PIC. The speaker talked about the attitude of servitude and how a career in Extension might never be a high salary paying job (it wasn’t) but the joy of doing a job where you serve clientele can be a very rewarding substitution.

I was hooked! A career with unknown opportunities to serve others while I tried stepping up to the plate lay ahead of me. To this day I am so thankful a career as a County Agent found me. I truly can’t think of a better career, for me anyway. But, I also tell folks that I highly recommend retirement, too.

So did I hit a home run or clear the bases each time that I stepped to the plate? Most definitely not. However I want to believe that the many opportunities to serve my fellow county agent associates and clientele gave me a career filled with fulfillment and happiness. I wish you the best in your Extension career and that you find enjoyment in what you choose.

APPLYING FOR 2019 NACAA AWARDS PROGRAMS

The General Application process is found on-line at <http://ncaa.com/awards/> and for the majority of the awards listed in this publication, on-line applications are mandatory.

Note: 1) NACAA policy states that all first place national winners and all national finalists must register and attend the AM/PIC to receive their award. (See below under "Attendance Requirement").

All program entries must be in possession of respective committee state chair by March 15, 2019, except where noted. Applying earlier is encouraged.

Current members of the NACAA Board may not enter the professional improvement programs with the exceptions of DSA and AA. State chairs, regional vice chairs, and national chairs may participate in the programs which their committees are administering according to criteria determined by the NACAA Board of Directors. Contact NACAA Vice President Gene McAvoy for further details.

Attendance Requirement

NACAA policy states that all Achievement Award (AA), Distinguished Service Award (DSA), National Finalists, National Winners, and Poster Session Presenters must register for the NACAA Annual Meeting and Professional Improvement Conference and attend the designated ceremony to receive their award (minimum 1 day registration fee). Decisions on requests for non-attendance and excused absences will be made on a case by case basis by consultation among the respective National Committee Chair, in concert with the National Committee Vice Chairs and the NACAA Vice President. Excuses may be granted to AA, DSA, National Finalists, and National Winners for extreme personal or family illness; circumstances which would seriously jeopardize their job; or similar extreme situations. The intent of this requirement is that awards are inclusive of cash, plaques, and certificates.

In the event a national winner does not receive an excused absence from attending the AM/PIC, the national winner's award will be presented to the next ranking National Finalist who attends the AM/PIC. If none of the National Finalists attend the AM/PIC, a national winner award will not be presented.

In the event a national finalist does not receive an excused absence from attending the AM/PIC, the national finalist award will be forfeited. If a national finalist award is forfeited, there will be no replacement from lower ranking entries.

Note: The National Winner who is asked to make a program presentation at the AM/PIC is eligible for a reimbursement of the AM/PIC registration fee. In case of a team presentation, the value will equal one registration.

JCEP Creative Excellence Award

DESCRIPTION

Often, the most creative and innovative ideas - the ones that advance the science and art of Cooperative Extension - come not from committees, but rather from individuals or small teams who see something at first that the rest of us don't. Through their insight, passion and persistence, their "wild" ideas gain acceptance, enabling all of us to excel. This award recognizes those individuals or small teams and their unique contributions - whether they are early in their Extension careers, mid-career, or late career.

For the purposes of this award, innovation is an approach to emerging issues or addressing existing issues in exceptionally creative or novel ways that get results, and that others want to emulate.

ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must be a member of NACAA in good standing.

JUDGING

NACAA Council Chairs along with the NACAA Vice President will review all applicants and present to the board of directors - one individual or small team (2-5 members) for recognition as the overall recipient of the JCEP Creative Excellence Award. Each individual nominee or team will receive recognition and a $250 stipend (1 award) to be presented at the NACAA AM/PIC.

All of the honorees' innovative and creative achievements will be highlighted on the JCEP website and in JCEP communications.

Judging will be based on the following criteria:

- 1) Do the nominee's efforts address emerging issues or current issues in unique ways?
- 2) Are the innovative efforts new, that is, not widely conducted previously in the state or region?
- 3) Does the nominee exhibit a pattern of innovative and creative efforts extending beyond a single program or product?
- 4) Are the innovative and creative efforts highlighted in the nomination leading to change in individuals and communities?
- 5) Are other Extension or outreach professionals adopting the innovative and creative approaches developed by the nominee?

Online application is due by March 15, 2019.

USDA SARE/NACAA FELLOWS PROGRAM

PURPOSE

This program is designed to provide hands-on experience and materials for selected NACAA members to study and become familiar with the basics of sustainable agriculture and alternative farm systems as currently practiced within the four regions of the US Department of Agriculture. An understanding of current trends, practices, and underlying strategies within the sustainable agriculture movement will help Cooperative Extension agents or farm advisors, and agricultural professionals with whom they work, build effective outreach programs to provide assistance to those who have made the transition or to help guide producers desiring to begin the transition toward sustainable production systems on their own farms and ranches.

Specific sustainable farming systems will be studied as selected fellows visit two of the USDA regions each year as part of the two year program. The fellows will hear discussions on sustainable agriculture as pertaining to each region and visit selected farms and ranches to view firsthand the application of sustainable agriculture principles studied in the classroom. For more details go to <http://www.nacaa.com> and click on the SARE Fellows button.

ELIGIBILITY

Members of NACAA in good standing with their state associations with responsibility in agricultural production systems are eligible to apply for the Fellows Program.

REQUIREMENT:

What is the SARE Fellows Program?

The SARE Fellows Program is Opportunity!

It is not only excellent for the professional development of an Extension Educator's career, but provides the opportunity to:

- 1) Forge new connections with colleagues from other parts of the nation
- 2) Evaluate agriculture within a social, economic and environmental framework
- 3) Visit innovative producers that are striving to sustain agriculture for future generations through the use of sustainable practices
- 4) Improve your agriculture programs

What are sustainable practices?

They are something that needs to be determined and developed by you.

Please consider applying to become a USDA SARE / NACAA Fellow, as early in my Extension career I had the opportunity to participate in the program. The total immersion into the Sustainable Agriculture principles became an important part of my clientele services.

If you need further information on the program please do not hesitate to contact me.

Search for Excellence in Livestock Production

TURNING A PROFIT WITH BEEF CATTLE

Covington, C.*¹

The purpose of this educational program was to increase the individual profitability of the cow/calf producers in Mississippi. I accomplished this task by working with beef producers in identifying their effective production practices, diagnosing their inefficiencies in production, and prescribing corrective measures to ensure their maximum profitability through the optimum utilization of their farm resources. In order to achieve the overall goal of profitability, several smaller goals needed to be met. I utilized multiple program activities and teaching methods, recognizing that different producers learn in different ways. These educational activities included 129 newsletter/circular letters, 131 newspaper articles, and 135 group activities that reached 1,725 producers over the past three years. The producers participating in the program indicated the value of the information they gained from these educational activities in the form of savings or increased profits to their operations at over $7.5 million. However, the increase in knowledge by these producers is a much more valuable indicator of its true success and effectiveness.

OPEN COMMITTEE CHAIR AND VICE CHAIR POSITIONS 2019 - 2021

When you read through the Special Edition of The County Agent, it is obvious that committee work and related activities is the essence of what it takes to achieve NACAA's mission. Historically NACAA has been fortunate to have committed, hard working members fill those leadership positions. This year as every year there is an opportunity for members to expand and share their leadership and professional improvement skills by applying for committee positions that are open. Becoming active in the NACAA committee structure will provide you with a wealth of both professional and personal growth. Give serious consideration to any of the state and national committee positions that are available.

Application/nominations will be available on the NACAA web site shortly after January 1, 2019 and will be due no later than March 1, 2019. Appointments will be made at the Spring Board Meeting.
