President's Corner

Show Up and Show Out

I hope everyone had a wonderful and relaxing Christmas Season. Time away from work stress was needed but we shouldn't forget the real reason for the season. I try to not overlook that I receive many more blessings than I deserve. Let's be thankful for our family, careers, and friendships. Appreciate what you have because it could always be taken away. Now refreshed in January, let's strive to do what we signed up for – to help our clients improve their lives.

The new NACAA website went active December 1st. Due to member requests, we invested quite a large sum into developing this site. It looks professional and clean and easier to navigate to complete our tasks. As with any new technology, there will be glitches, but go ahead and log in and if you find a glitch, please let us know and we'll work to get it fixed. I think you'll be pleased.

We are approaching a very busy 6 month stretch. As we prepare for our AM/PIC, look back at what you accomplished and consider applying for awards and submitting abstracts for oral presentations. Council Chairs, Vice-President, and the Florida Association are busy planning activities to help each of us improve how we work for our clients. I tasked the Council Chairs to fit even more professional development opportunities into the schedule. Now we need you to complete the schedule. It's a "Build it and they will come" challenge. In offering more presentations, will you fill the slots? Don't let me down!

March 15th is the main deadline to submit for awards and presentations. It always amazes me when I see the great programming my colleagues provide, and I get to bring ideas back home. What will you teach me in 2022? This issue shares all the information you need to submit your work. We can all share something that helps fellow agents in their roles. So... Submit an abstract for an oral presentation. Submit a nomination to Communications, Search for Excellence, or another award program. You can't win if you don't enter.

Bill Burdine
NACAA President

Maybe a poster is your strong suit. It's not my strength but I envy those with the artistic vision to create a poster that is educational and catches the eye.

If you have questions on the process or where something may fit, reach out to national or vice-chairs who are here to help. Reminder: DSA, AA, and National Award finalists must register for AM-PIC and attend the correct event to receive their award.

Maybe this is the year you give back by serving on a committee. Committees, not the Board, are where NACAA improvements begin. If you have better ideas, can take a leading role, have the desire to make us stronger, then I encourage you to apply. Inside the cover is a list of open positions so see where you fit and apply. Reach out to Council Chairs or your Regional Director if you have any questions. In return for your time and energy, Chairs get AM-PIC expenses covered whereas Vice-Chairs get registration fees reimbursed. While serving, you can strengthen your dossier to assist in promotions, networking and developing life-long friendships.

A few other professional development opportunities coming over the horizon are JCEP Leadership Conference in February 2022 and JCEP Public Issues Leadership Development Conference in April 2022. Registration information is found on the JCEP website (www.jcep.org). Also consider applying for the JCEP Creative Excellence Award ($250) if you developed a new program that fits the criteria.

NACAA Webinar 365 trainings are offered year-round. These Zoom webinars are free and cover a wide range of topics from applying for awards to new technologies presented by agriculture companies. I hope you'll join us throughout the year. It's an opportunity to learn and it gives our sponsors a return on their investment.

Make your plans to attend our Family Reunion AM/PIC in West Palm Beach, FL in July 2022. I'm excited to see everyone again and hope you are as well. For a fun and educational AM/PIC, we need you to apply for committees, submit abstracts and award nominations, register, and attend. So, let's Show Up and Show Out in WPB!

Life Member Corner

by: Paul H. Craig
Life Member Committee National Chair

I recently had a great experience with 3 other Pennsylvania County Agent Life Members and 12 active PACAA members on a Zoom chat. The idea for this meeting was to provide the Life Members an opportunity to share many of their career experiences and lessons and allow newer members to highlight their Extension tales in the Age of Covid. There was one topic that really opened my eyes to the current state of Extension in PA and I believe that this issue is not uncommon in many other states. I'll use my own career as an example.

When I was hired (way back in 1979) in Washington County, PA I went to work in a county with a CED, 2 ag agents, 2 family living agents and 2 4-H agents. All the other counties in the SW Region of PA had full staffs, as did most of the 67 counties across PA. Some had 2 ag and family living agents and 4-H, and a few had many more. State and local budgets were great. There were few open positions. I was in a class of 36 "New Workers" all hired within 6 months.

Ten years later when I transferred to another county in central PA the staff there had 3 ag, 2 family living and 3 4-H educators. Can anyone imagine that today? Not in Pennsylvania, unfortunately.

Those experienced and wizened Extension men and women I met and learned from, introduced and shared with me, the wonderful world of a career in service to agriculture that this wide-eyed young man could only imagine. Many coworkers opened farmstead gates and ag business doors to assist me getting my foot in the door. With the long serving County Agent at my back, I was made welcome. Quite a few shared their programming successes and failures and provided firsthand assistance and encouragement. I was also encouraged to join NACAA. Many of these men and women became my valued associates, mentors and friends. I'm certain my career path would have been different and more difficult without this guidance.

During the Zoom session it was noted that today's Extension staffing is, not surprising, very different. In many counties the new educator fills a position that might have been open for 12 months or longer and, he/she is the only ag programming educator in the county. Imagine being a new agent, in your first Extension position and walking into the Extension office for the first day, alone. Somewhat daunting, I believe! In addition, your neighboring county offices may be short staffed. Who is there to introduce you to key doers and shakers? How about meeting local government leaders? How about just helping you to understand your new career and offer words of encouragement?? Life Members, perhaps?!

I'm not certain who had the idea for the Zoom session between Life and Active PACAA members, but I thought it was a great learning experience for everyone. I discovered, throughout in my career, that Extension folks are a special and unique breed of men and women. The kind of folks that I appreciate for their wisdom and most of all their friendship. This reminds me of a song – "We are, we are, we are, we are – The County Agent bunch"! But that was another time.

Fortunately for me as a PACAA Life Member there are many opportunities to remain in close contact with other retirees and active members in our state. Each January a call goes out for all PSU College of Ag Sciences retirees to contribute a brief yearly summary of their activities to share with other retirees. These short notes are collected, published and mailed in a wonderful publication called "Extension Extended". This year's issue will be the 53rd. Wow! It would not have been possible without the excellent support from College administration and many volunteer hours to organize. However, the success also depends on retirees who contribute an update.

Another event that has a long history in PA Extension circles is an annual late summer gathering for retirees and staff of PSU CAS held near State College. This event has a history dating back to the 1950's. It is held at a deer hunting camp and attendees' number from 50 to 75 men and women in recent years. Some of the earliest leaders of Extension are seen in photos passed around during the day. For myself it is a wonderful time to visit, renew old friendships and start new ones. All because of my association with Extension.

I look forward to opportunities to visit with other retirees who I have worked with. A lunch, a call or a visit to see their latest tractor restoration project always sounds inviting. Those men and women were/are valued partners during my career and became my friends. I appreciate the efforts we all take to remain in contact.

Following my retirement, which I highly recommend, I felt a desire to remain "connected" with my associates in NACAA from across the country. I attended recent AM/PIC's and participated in Life Member workshops and tours and spent many pleasurable times catching up with friends. And I'm glad I did. Later I served on the Life Member Committee and eventually I became chairperson. Then Covid struck.

I miss my NACAA friends. I miss the fellowship, the feeling of family, the welcoming that I discovered many years before. Last year the Life Members had their annual meeting and program conducted over Zoom. I would invite you to check out the recording available on the NACAA website, under Committees and then Life Members. Be sure to watch the programs on Yeungling beer, chocolates, Philly cheese steaks and the PA Dutch culture. While at the new, reformatted website check out your contact information to make sure it is updated. It helps tremendously.

I hope you will consider joining Active and Life Members at the 2022 AM/PIC meeting in West Palm Beach, FL. You can be assured the agents from FL and the Southern Region will have a grand meeting planned. I look forward to seeing you.

JCEP Creative Excellence Award

DESCRIPTION

Often, the most creative and innovative ideas - the ones that advance the science and art of Cooperative Extension - come not from committees, but rather from individuals or small teams who see something at first that the rest of us don't. Through their insight, passion and persistence, their "wild" ideas gain acceptance, enabling all of us to excel. This award recognizes those individuals or small teams and their unique contributions - whether they are early in their Extension careers, mid-career, or late career.

For the purposes of this award, innovation is an approach to emerging issues or addressing existing issues in exceptionally creative or novel ways that get results, and that others want to emulate.

ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must be a member of NACAA in good standing.

JUDGING

NACAA Council Chairs along with the NACAA Vice President will review all applicants and present to the board of directors - one individual or small team (2-5 members) for recognition as the overall recipient of the JCEP Creative Excellence Award. Each individual nominee or team will receive recognition and a $250 stipend (1 award) to be presented at the NACAA AM/PIC.

All of the honorees' innovative and creative achievements will be highlighted on the JCEP website and in JCEP communications. Judging will be based on the following criteria:

- 1) Do the nominee's efforts address emerging issues or current issues in unique ways?
- 2) Are the innovative efforts new, that is, not widely conducted previously in the state or region?
- 3) Does the nominee exhibit a pattern of innovative and creative efforts extending beyond a single program or product?
- 4) Are the innovative and creative efforts highlighted in the nomination leading to change in individuals and communities?
- 5) Are other Extension or outreach professionals adopting the innovative and creative approaches developed by the nominee?

Online application is due by March 15, 2022.

Search for Excellence in Livestock Production

TURNING A PROFIT WITH BEEF CATTLE

The purpose of this educational program was to increase the individual profitability of the cow/calf producers in Mississippi. I accomplished this task by working with beef producers in identifying their effective production practices, diagnosing their inefficiencies in production, and prescribing corrective measures to ensure their maximum profitability through the optimum utilization of their farm resources. In order to achieve the overall goal of profitability, several smaller goals needed to be met. I utilized multiple program activities and teaching methods, recognizing that different producers learn in different ways. These educational activities included 129 newsletter/circular letters, 131 newspaper articles, and 135 group activities that reached 1,725 producers over the past three years. The producers participating in the program indicated the value of the information they gained from these educational activities in the form of savings or increased profits to their operations at over $7.5 million. However, the increase in knowledge by these producers is a much more valuable indicator of its true success and effectiveness.
